

THE NEWBERRY HERALD.

Special and Local.

THE NEW POSTAL LAW.—After the 1st of January, 1875, editors have to prepare all the papers from the office. Of course no publisher can afford to pay postage for a subscriber in arrears. We give this timely notice to all delinquents that we will not let their names encumber our books after that period.

The \times mark denotes expiration—after that the paper is discontinued.

DECISIONS OF THE COURTS.—Any person who takes a paper regularly from the Post Office—whether directed to his name or another, or whether he subscribed or not—is responsible for the pay. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it is taken from the office or not. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of fraud and guilt.

TAKE NOTICE.—All parties having Advertisements or Executive Notices for publication, will send themselves trouble by coming prepared to pay for the same before insertion, as our terms are cash. Lawyers handling in such notices will be held responsible for the payment.

They will also be held responsible for the publication of all notices in Bankrupt cases. All single or transient business notices in the local department are inserted at the rate of fifteen cents per line—liberal contracts made for three, six or twelve months.

Communications on subjects of interest to the public are always acceptable. The names of writers, remember, must always accompany a letter to insure its publication. No responsibility is assumed for any other views than those of the Editor.

Transient advertisements of any kind must be paid for in advance, if the parties advertising do not reside in town.

Job work and subscriptions strictly cash. All papers shall be stopped hereafter as soon as the term of subscription expires, unless satisfactory arrangements are made to continue the same.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Wm. L. Webb—China, Glass and Earthenware. Rev. S. B. Jones, D. D.—Columbia Female College. Ladden & Bates—Pianos and Organs—Attention Music Buyers. T. F. Harmon—Important Notice—Corn, Barley, Oats and Rye—Shingles, Shingles—Tobacco—Groceries.

See card of F. Werber, Jr., Deputy Surveyor.

The weather is quite cool.

Farrow will be in town next Friday evening with good peaches.

Copy!!! cries the "Devil." Go to the D—yourself and let us eat dinner. The machine is responsible.

Fresh lot of Gems, Disciplines and Hymn Books, just received at the HERALD Book Store. 23-1f.

"Sponges sell at a dollar a pound at Key West." That may appear very high; but, then a pound of sponge weighs a good deal.

The wing of the mosquito makes the night misanthropic. If he would not present his bill afterwards the performance would be much more agreeable. We rather had the Professor's fiddle lull us to sleep.

Copying Ink: in stone jugs, and Marking or Indefinite Ink of superior qualities, Chalk Crayons, Congress Letter and Commercial Note, Repp, Initial and other papers, just received at the 32-3 HERALD BOOK STORE.

Martin Harris, the man of saws and planes, has some extra fine and substantial wardrobes for sale; they made our mouth water, but—may be you are in a better condition. Look at them anyhow.

Catalogues of the Books published by the Methodist Book House, at Nashville, can be seen at the HERALD Book Store, and any selection made therefrom will be ordered with promptness. Orders respectfully solicited at the 2-1f HERALD BOOK STORE.

We would suggest to the Hook and Ladder Co., to buy the Laurens from him to bring their members together. It is not now used, is very sweet of sound and may be bought at half price. Uncle Joe, after months of practice, has come to the conclusion that he will never make a musician, and his horn is for sale.

The New Orleans policemen have been throwing about poisoned sausages, and last week 357 dogs bit them and the dust.

We hereby subscribe five cents to send for a New Orleans policeman. The dog days are over but the dog nights are as bad as ever.

CAMP MEETING AT HOPEWELL.—A train will run to Martin's Depot, on Sunday, the 5th of September next, to accommodate all persons who desire to attend the Camp Meeting at Hopewell. The train will leave Newberry at 7 o'clock A. M. Leave Martin's Depot for Newberry, at 5:30 o'clock P. M. Fare for the round trip, 75 cents.

We have received a pamphlet containing the rules, regulations and schedule of premiums of the third grand annual Fair of the Greenville Agricultural and Mechanical Association of South Carolina, to commence Wednesday, October 20th, 1875, on the grounds of the Association, in Greenville, S. C., to continue three days. Exhibitors are invited from every section of the country. For further information apply to W. L. Mauldin, Secretary and Treasurer.

We would not be a bit surprised to hear that there are a good many little boys in this town, and girls too, who are just like the lazy Johnny mentioned below. If they have the right kind of mothers there is a chance for their improvement. We know of you, boys.

"Come, Johnny, the ice man has been around and it is time you had our piece washed off and put in the cooler." It seems the boy addressed has performed the same duty the morning before, and said: "All right," replied his mother. "You ate your dinner yesterday, and you don't want any to-day." It is just such railroad ballast argument as the above that makes a boy feel like crawling under a board pile and dying.

The boys wanted a "moonlight" picnic the other day; but the Hook and Ladder Co., came along with their Baboobos and put the moon out. The boys enjoyed themselves, however, splendidly by artificial light.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Columbia Female College. The exercises will commence on the first Wednesday in October next. For Catalogue, address the President, Rev. S. B. Jones, D. D., Columbia, S. C.

It makes no difference whether times are dull or flush, money plenty or otherwise, for china, crockery, glassware and other household goods will get broken or wear out. There is no getting over or around this, and the consequence is that new supplies are needed. It is important then to know where to get what you want, and at the cheapest price.

Messrs. Kingsland & Heath, of Columbia, whose large establishment is located under the Columbia Hotel, can give you all the satisfaction required. Visit them or send an order. 28-1f

THE LAURENS R. R.—The latest intelligence from the Railroad brings the gratifying assurance that the cars, on last Tuesday, stood within three hundred yards of Martin's Depot. By this time the Railroad has doubtless been completed to some point this side of Martin's, and will soon reach the T rail, when the work will be pushed more rapidly forward. We are also gratified to learn that there are about sixty-five hands now engaged on the Road, and that the work is progressing with reasonable speed.

[Laurensville Herald.] We have received an anonymous communication from the Fork, which—against our rule—we partly publish, as we do not wish to withhold the information from our readers. Correspondents, however, will please bear in mind that it is the universal rule in Christendom to sign one's name at the bottom of a letter, although thousands find their way to the Dead Letter Office at Washington, on account of being unsigned. We have confidence enough, however, in our unknown correspondent not to try his bridge until it is fixed. After that we shall be very happy to shake hands with our friends in the "Fork." We have long been desirous of partaking of their well-known hospitality.

BEAR IT IN MIND that transient advertisements must be paid for in advance. Subscriptions the same. Job work, cash on delivery.

No accounts are kept in the Book Store either, and parties wanting books or stationery must come prepared to pay for them. 20-1f.

WHAT GOOD ROADS DO.—Good roads benefit every one residing along their course. Good roads save horse flesh; they facilitate the transportation of produce to market; they save your temper; they increase the value of your land; they lend attractiveness to the eye of a stranger; they increase the traffic and business of a town by its vitality in all the various branches of trade. Show us a town which receives a large country trade by means of the fine roads leading to it, and we will show you a place that is lively, progressive and thrifty, with money circulating plenty, and men in all branches of industry as busy as bees. —Greenville News.

This was written at Greenville, but evidently intended for Newberry. We thank our neighbor for the hint.

THE BOY NUISANCE.—We have spoken about this matter in a jesting way, but we were in earnest; and we now distinctly announce that we are in earnest in what we have to say at this time. There is a herd of lazy, idle, negro boys lounging around the corners, yelling, fighting and using dirty language to the annoyance of all decent people. It is an intolerable nuisance and must be abated. If their parents won't act, the Town Council must. It has come to such a pass that a lady can not visit a store without being run over by one of the juvenile recent emancipated. If the parent of the "hopeful" thinks that the fifteenth amendment won't allow him to use the birch, the marshal should convince him that there is virtue in a key, plain water and pine matras.

P. S.—We learn with grateful feelings that the police are after the young disturbers, whose parents are greedily more to blame than the young innocents. Now for the dogs, and we will let the Council alone—until next time.

A THUNDERBOLT.—Various portions of the State have during the year been visited by cyclones, hail storms, and floods of rain, and so much damage has been done that apprehensions have been generally felt whenever cloud arose, in the fear of a visitation of a like dreadful character. These fears have for some time been subsiding, and a sudden cloud or heavy peal of thunder does not strike so much terror to the heart now as formerly. In the midst of fancied security, however, the citizens of Columbia have been startled by a THUNDERBOLT! We are pleased to say that on investigation it proved to emanate from Perry & Sawson's Sugar Store, and as nobody was hurt the rejoicing became general. These gentlemen, it appears, manufacture and sell thunderbolts, and warrant them as harmless as doves, and that a match may even be applied to one end while the other can be placed in the mouth of the most timid man, without fear of consequences. Like Vesuvius they smoke, but unlike her they do not explode. Send to Perry & Sawson, the Columbia Sugar and Tobacco Dealers, for a box of Thunderbolts. 28-1f.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH for September abounds in excellent suggestions on the prevention of disease and the care of health. Among the more prominent articles we find: Laws—Which Govern Life; Prevention of Disease in Children; Popular Physiology; Cause and Effect; Alcoholic Prescriptions; Colors and Hues in Relation to Health; Tobacco; Consumption; Sunshine; Intemperance Among Lawyers; Oatmeal, with various recipes for its use; an excellent Agricultural Department; Teachers of Health; Sufferers; Antipathies to Drugs; The Trade in Medicines; with a great amount of information in small paragraphs, as in Answers to Correspondents, etc. This magazine should have a place in every well-regulated family. Subscription price is only $2.00 a year. Single numbers, 20 cents. Address S. R. Wells & Co., 737 Broadway, New York.

JALAPA ITEMS.

Our town is remarkably healthy. The diphtheria alluded to in a late communication has subsided.

The fourth store is now completed. Mr. J. B. Campbell is the happy owner.

We need dwelling houses. Will not Col. Cannon, Dr. Clark, W. H. Eddy, J. B. Campbell and Thos. Chapman put up two or more cottages each; a public hall is likewise needed.

The Cheatham cotton owned by our young farmer, Wm. C. Swittenburg, is splendid and attracts much attention.

The new sign is soon to be placed over the "Jalapa Hotel." We hope Capt. Packer will make a neat one.

We learn that Col. Peake and family will soon move to Martins. The regret will be general as his stay at Jalapa was agreeable to all.

Farmers are busy pulling fodder. The rains have improved the looks of cotton.

No clue as yet to the thief who robbed the store of Clark & Folk, as previously mentioned in the HERALD. The loss was much greater than thought at first.

DON'T FORGET.—If you are going away for the Summer or even for a brief period, step up to the HERALD office and have the paper sent to you for that time. It will not cost much and will afford great satisfaction while you are away. We will send it for one or two months or longer.

FUNNY GRAPHS.—Why is a solar eclipse like a woman whipping her boy? Because it's a hiding of the sun.

Miss Charity Fuller, of Hudson, is one of ten sisters, but the greatest of these is Charity—six feet two in her stockings.

"Is this the Adams House?" inquired a stranger of a Bostonian. "Yes," was the reply, "it's Adam's House until you get to the roof, then it's eaves."

Forbearance is not always a virtue, even in a clergyman. Imagine the feelings of a rural divine, who, after getting fifty cents for marrying a couple, found that the bridegroom had gone off with his new silk hat.

When a woman is care-laden and heavy-hearted, nothing shakes the megrims out of her quicker than for a couple of ladies to stop in front of the house long enough for her to examine the trimmings on their bonnets.

A boy in the suburbs tried to ascertain the other day the soundness of the proverb: "Birds of a feather flock together." He plucked the old rooster down to a single tail feather, and it didn't flock at all, but went and hid under the barn. Thus is another old saw smashed.

"My dear," inquired a young wife of her husband, as she reached up her little mouth to be kissed on his return from business, "have you seen the magnificent set of walnut furniture which the Jenkins have just bought?" "Hem, no, my love; but I have seen the bill, which quite satisfies me."

Bangs wanted to move from the residence of his wife's mother and occupy rooms in one of his tenement houses. "A pretty idea," exclaimed Mrs. B., indignantly, "live with our tenants indeed?" "I don't care," replied Bangs, "I'd rather live with eleven aunts than one mother-in-law."

[St. Croix Courier.] A wife who had been lecturing her husband for coming home intoxicated, became incensed at his indifference, and exclaimed, "Oh, that I could wring tears of anguish from your eyes!" To which the hardened wretch hiccoughed, "Tain't no use, old woman, to bobore for water here."

ANDREW JOHNSON'S EARLY LOVE AFFAIR.—In John Savage's "Life of Andrew Johnson," the reader is given the belief that Mr. Johnson loved and was disappointed in his affections by their object. Such is not the case, so far as the conclusion is stated. He did fall in love with a young lady of good family and estimable character. She responded in the fullest degree, and both anticipated great felicity in a future life together. The parents of the young lady, however, objected to the marriage upon the grounds of Mr. Johnson's youth (he was yet in his minor years) and lack of means. Upon hearing this, Mr. Johnson sought an interview with the young lady, told her of the decision of her parents, and of the course he himself had resolved upon. With his native high principle, he said there was nothing left to them but to part and forget what they had been to each other. The lady felt otherwise, and frankly told him that she would go with him wherever he might lead, and that she would not hesitate to trust her life and its keeping into his hands. The strong pride and love of fair dealing of Mr. Johnson could not permit this, and notwithstanding his love, he denied the proposition and left the place, only returning long years after, when the lady was married and the mother of a family. Thus it will be understood that the lady did not prove faithless and cause any wounded feelings to the subject of this sketch. —From the Greenville Intelligencer, edited by Andrew Johnson, Jr.

Somebody is not very complimentary to the ex-Comptroller-General.

Hon. Solomon L. Hoge is advertised to go up to Ohio on an invitation of the Executive Republican Committee of that State, to make speeches in the campaign against the re-election of Gov. Allen.

Hoge is a prince of carpet baggers in South Carolina; a mighty orator, with just enough brain not to feel the lack of it; the member elect to Congress; the ex-Comptroller-General of the State, and the man, who, in a recent speech before a jury trying the notorious Parker, "told tales out of school," when he said that Attorney Governor Chamberlain, Attorney Melton or himself contemplated opening up the doings of the preceding administrations; when they pledged to the people in the last campaign that reform was going to be instituted in South Carolina, they meant that it should be prospective; were going to open up a new book. This was a frank confession, and frankness is regarded as one of Hoge's only redeeming qualities.

He will make a good canvasser for Gov. Allen, and we bid him speed in his departure.

A CARD. CHARLESTON, S. C., August 13, 1875. TO THE MERCHANTS OF NEWBERRY:

GENTLEMEN: To my old friends and customers it is scarcely necessary to speak through the public press, except to call attention to my announcement for the Fall Trade which appears in another column of this paper. But to those to whom I am unknown I would merely remark that my house was established in 1871, and I have personally carried on the business successfully for twenty-three years. I am fully acquainted with the market of supply, as well as with the wants of my customers, and I am therefore prepared to fill bills at prices which will prove remunerative to my patrons.

Yours respectfully, WM. L. WEBB.

Endorsement of the People's Remedy. When skillful and cautious medical men give over their own signatures a favorable opinion of the soothing and vitalizing effects of a preparation, the public does not hesitate to believe them. The voluminous and emphatic professional testimony in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, as a specific for all disorders of the stomach and bowels, for liver complaint, intermittent and remittent fevers, the Bitters are said to be the most valuable remedy for all ailments, and are universally endorsed as a preventive of disorders caused by miasma and impure water.

It is Not Generally Known. That the shortest possible route between the South and Great West is through St. Louis, over the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line. This road has gained surprising importance by reason of immense expenditures in the last two years, of over two million dollars, besides earnings, in improvements of road-way, in relaying their line with best quality of new steel and iron rails, on broad new ties, and substituting for ordinary cars, new reclining chair coaches, elegantly carpeted and fitted, with dressing rooms with toilet conveniences for ladies, gentlemen and families traveling with children, without any extra charge. This line runs six fast Express trains between the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers, two more than any other road, and connects with the great Land Grant Roads in the West, and has adopted all modern appliances for comfort, speed and safeguards against accidents, including night and day watchmen, who inspect the road before and after the passage of each train to see that everything is in order. We recommend those contemplating a trip West to take the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Short Line, it being the only line running through cars between St. Louis and Omaha, and tickets over this excellent line we refer our readers to any ticket agent selling through tickets to the West. For map, circulars and Time tables address either J. F. McCarthy, Cincinnati, C.; or P. B. Groat, St. Louis, Mo., either of whom will furnish any information desired. 4-1f
